Thank you all very much for the positive energy, patience, and creativity you brought to the audition process. We appreciate your professionalism, respect, and playfulness during the auditions. And we couldn't have done it without your flexibility to make both auditions work! We couldn't have done it without your commitment to your craft.

Please visit the costume shop at your earliest convenience for measurements.

Please pick up scripts from Murphy, Room 317. Dialect samples will be provided soon. Remember that rehearsals start the week BEFORE school starts- Monday, January 14. Please let me know if you have any questions.

Thanks again and congratulations for a successful process!

Sincerely Yours,
Professor Bohon
